25X1A8a a. On 6 February the ADTR, Mr. [REDACTED] and I attended a meeting called by DC/CA Staff to consider a draft of a briefing paper for the DCI's use at that part of the 8 February meeting of the Special Group (Counter Insurgency) to be devoted to counter insurgency training. Present also were the DDP/TRO, [REDACTED]. The latter's redraft of Mr. [REDACTED]'s earlier memorandum to COPS (see WAR #4, 1 February 1962) was felt most useful if reduced to its essentials, as contained in its first two pages. It was suggested that it might be helpful for the Special Group (Counter Insurgency) to form a task force of departmental training specialists. It was agreed that CIA might benefit from a joint orientation course on counter insurgency and that such a course might best be conducted under other than CIA auspices, but with active Agency participation.

25X1A9a b. The undersigned will join C/[REDACTED] and others in a trip to Fort Bragg 19 - 21 February to explore with Special Forces personnel matters of joint concern in the field of counter insurgency.
